CE-marking ties ethics to standards

	Bias	Human-in-the-loop	Environment
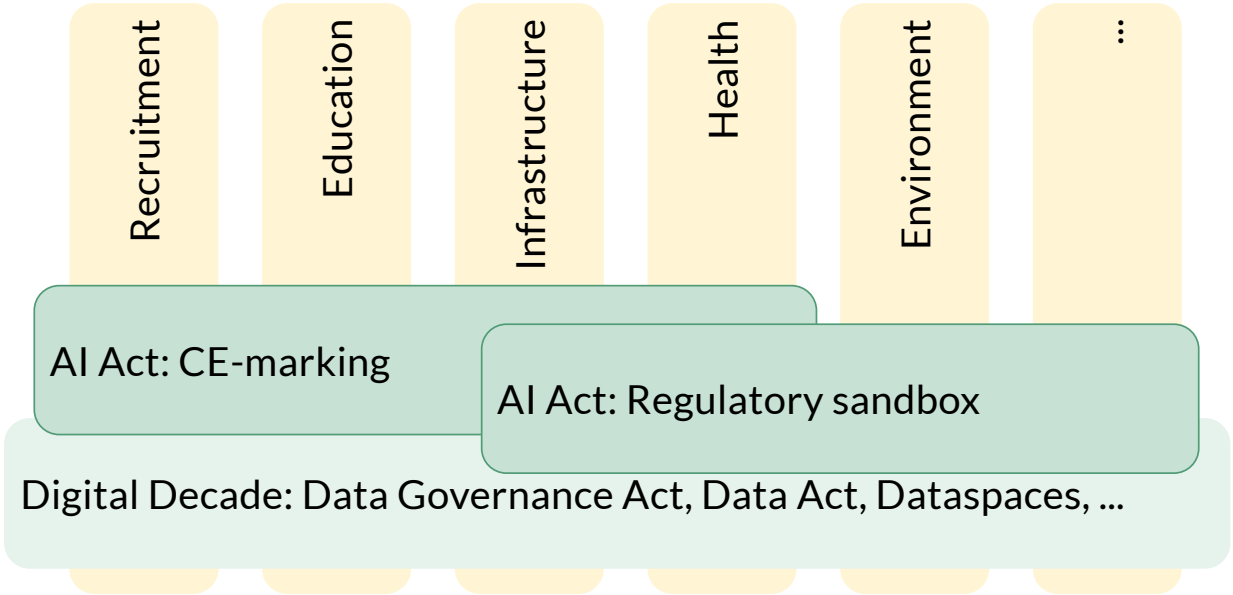
High-level Expert Group	Diversity, non-discrimination and fairness	Human agency and oversight	Environmental well-being
AI Act General approach, November 2022	Data should be representative, relevant and as far as possible free of errors and complete (article 10)	Human oversight will mitigate risks in relation to fundamental rights (article 14)	-
CEN / CENELEC Draft request for standardisation	Governance and quality of data for AI	Human oversight of AI systems	-
ISO / IEC On-going initatives on international standards	Standard: Data Governance Report: Bias in AI	Report: Trustworthy AI Report: Human-system interaction	Report: Ethical and societal concerns

Green Deal & Foundational models

RI. SE



Public administration and the innovation system

Data as a tradeable asset drives new roles and responsibilities for public administration

Existing responsibilities for market surveillance and supporting public and private services – complemented with new role as innovation partner and databroker, teaching regulatory compliance, ...

Some digitalisation initiatives touch areas traditionally seen as member state mandate – combining existing memberstate with new EU policy

RI. SE